

February 2024

ANNOUNCEMENT: INTRODUCING THE “DAUPHINE FAMILY BUSINESSES ONLINE SEMINAR SERIES”

The “Family Businesses and Long-Term Investment” Chair at the University Paris Dauphine – PSL is launching a virtual seminar dedicated to family firms. It aims to bring together professionals and researchers who are interested in the results of academic studies exploring the dynamics of family businesses.

The online seminars will be held on Fridays from 1:00 to 2:15 pm (Paris Time). We are planning to organize one session every 4 to 6 weeks. Below is the list of the scheduled talks for Spring 2024:

- March 15, 2024, 1:00 pm. Paul-Olivier Klein and Oskar Kowalewski: “Family Ownership and Carbon Emissions” (with M. Borsuk and N. Eugster).
- May 3, 2024, 1:00 pm. Janis Berzins and Anete Pajuste. “Family Firm Performance and the First-Generation Change: Evidence from Latvia”.
- June 7, 2024, 1:00 pm. Mario Daniele Amore: “Using Artificial Intelligence to Measure the Family Control of Firms” (with V. D’Angelo, I. Le Breton-Miller, D. Miller, V. Pelucco and M. van Essen).

As the seminar is a live event, we kindly ask you to register. Please subscribe to our mailing list by sending an email to François Belot (francois.belot@dauphine.psl.eu). After registration, you will receive a confirmation and the link to the online seminar by email.

For further information about the Chair, please visit:

<https://dauphine.psl.eu/en/research/chairs-circles-and-research-initiatives/family-businesses-long-term-investment>