

PhD CANDIDATES IN FINANCE – Call for Applications

LaRGE Research Center, University of Strasbourg

LaRGE Research Center (University of Strasbourg) is one of the major research centers in finance in France. Its finance faculty consists of 38 Full, Associate, and Assistant professors in all fields of finance. LaRGE Research Center excels in four major fields: behavioural finance, banking, corporate finance / corporate governance, and public finance. It has developed an active and strong international research network. More information can be found on the website: <https://large.em-strasbourg.eu/>

We are looking for ambitious students with a master degree in finance or in financial economics and the experience of writing a master thesis to apply for a PhD grant (“contrat doctoral”). Applicants should have a strong research interest in finance. Selected candidates will be recruited and funded for a period of 3 years.

Applications must include:

- a detailed academic CV.
- transcripts of records (undergraduate and graduate studies).
- a letter of motivation.
- a PhD proposal (in English).
- two academic references with detailed contact data.

Applications must be sent to Laurent Weill (Head of the LaRGE research center) by e-mail (laurent.weill@unistra.fr) before the 15th of May 2023.